

8. TIME ZONES

WORKSHEET 3: LEARNING “GOOD MORNING” AND “GOOD EVENING” IN DIFFERENT LANGUAGES

Grouping:  (whole class)

- A. Check your answers to the previous task with those of your fellow students and exchange information.
- B. Do you know how people say “good morning” and “good evening” in other languages? Share with your fellow students.
- C. Try to learn these greetings in the different languages. (If you think that it is too much, do not worry. Learn them in as many languages as you like).