Choose and divide areas between you in the group:

new countries

new climates

new cultures

new architecture

new food and spices

new languages

new clothing

new knowledge/science

new food

Each group will present their area at the fair by making collages connected with posters. The posters will give detailed information about each area.

The collages can be put up for auction during the fair.

Feel free to bring examples of food, spices, clothes etc. for the visitors to see and try.
