

Evaluation of 26/09

What I liked most today:

- Working on our own
- Combat+ teaching materials
- Greatly entertaining and inspiring
- Creating materials in group
- Groupwork presentation: shows clearly how we can contribute to Combat+
- Everything got very clear
- Meeting different opinions on materials
- Combat+ concepts put into practice
- Working on the +side of Combat+
- Excellent collaboration and results
- Taking a group picture getting instructions

What was new for me today and what will enrich my future professional activities:

- Information on how to raise plurilingual, pluricultural and intercultural competences
- How to create respect and tolerance
- The amount of homework given
- Very limited time to get everything done
- Creative atmosphere
- Networking
- How resourcefull my colleagues can be
- New teaching methods, the plurilingual approach
- People's experience
- Like the homework: motivating
- That my country shares many similarities with other countries
- Learnt a lot about how other countries approach CLIL and plurilingualism
- The integration of so many subjects in one single class
- Intersession was highly stimulating
- The idea of using content subject terminology to trigger work on plurilingualism

What could be improved:

- Create curriculum based materials
- Tell on the onset what is expected, more clear instructions
- Sightseeing tour would be nice
- Timing
- Homework assignment
- Less work please
- OK today, day 1 could have been shorter
- Increasing the European dimension in teaching foreign languages at our school
- Students' questionnaire is far too complicated
- Nothing
